Fun & Games With

SING food songs such as "On Top of Spaghetti," "One Potato, Two Potato" and "Peanut, Peanut Butter."

CUT food labels from packages. Have your child glue the labels to a paper bag to make a shopping list.

PROVIDE a white paper plate (without wax) and have your child draw favorite foods on the plate.

SET UP a sensory bin with rice, oatmeal, or beans and measuring cups and spoons.

Food Books

COMPARE the sizes of multiples of the same fruit or vegetable. Use words such as big, bigger, biggest.

IMITATE sounds related to foods and cooking, such as whisking eggs, popping popcorn, or crunching apples.

FOLLOW a simple recipe to make a food featured in a book. Try something new, such as a food from another culture.

MAKE pudding and let your child finger paint with it on waxed paper or foil. (You can also use baby food.)

HELP your child count pieces of food. Then pose questions such as how many if you ate two and then two more?

ACT OUT food delivery scenarios with your child. Have your child deliver the food on riding toys.
