Fun & Games With

SING songs about transportation, such as "The Wheels on the Bus" and "Row, Row, Your Boat."

PAINT with toy cars. Put a bit of paint on a paper plate. Have your child push the car through the paint to make tracks.

PLAY the game "Red Light, Green Light." (You may want to show your child a picture of a traffic light before playing.)

SET UP a sensory bin with cotton balls and toy airplanes.

Transportation Books

DECORATE a large box or laundry basket to look like a car or truck. Have your child sit in the "car" while you read.

IMITATE sounds that cars, trucks, trains, boats, and airplanes make.

CREATE train tracks on the floor using painter's tape. Have your child act out being a train engineer or passenger.

BUILD ramps with your child using blocks, cardboard, or empty paper towel rolls to play with toy cars.

COUNT the number of wheels on a page in the book.

MAKE a boat from recycled materials (plastic cups, juice boxes, etc.) for boat play in the bathtub.
